Mercy Ships – Projector Appeal

Sheila continues to support Mercy Ships and gives a regular PowerPoint presentation, but her rather old projector is past its sell by date!
She would be pleased to hear from anyone who has one for sale.

Hucclecote Hub – Carol Singing

The 3 Hucclecote Hub churches are joining together on Thursday 18th December at 6.30pm, to sing carols inside the Wagon and Horses, where we received a warm welcome last year. As Methodists we are known for our singing so please come along to help to sing the Good News to the people of Hucclecote.

Mariners Church – Advent Art

Mariners church are really excited this advent season to be hosting an advent art installation in Mariners Chapel throughout December

We will be displaying 15 images each with a short meditation by artist Scott Erickson exploring the incarnation.

Our vision is to create a quiet space to pause and reflect in the midst of the busyness of the season. The installation is free to visit and the chapel will be open for visitors from 10am -6pm every day during Advent, apart from Thursdays when it will remain open till 8pm and Sundays when it will open from 1pm-6pm throughout December

Dear friends,

Thank you for sharing your kindness and compassion throughout the year. Your dedication brings hope and dignity to so many people facing hardship and loneliness. You truly make a difference, and we are so grateful.

Wishing you peace, joy, and rest this Christmas,

Warm regards,

Wishing you warmth, joy and heartfelt thanks this season for all the kindness and hope you bring me and others through your incredible work.
